THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Auxiliary Volunteers Impact Lives

Tamara Ison

One of the more visible and helpful volunteer organizations in our community is the Auxiliary Services at Wellstar Spalding Regional Hospital. Rotarian Tamara Ison, Wellstar Spalding Regional Hospital President, explained that the Auxiliary was founded in 1950 when 29 local women accepted the invitation to provide volunteer assistance at the Strickland Memorial Hospital. These ladies were called Pink Ladies after the "crash cart" Code Pink that is now known as Code Blue. Many of the ladies continue to wear pink signifying that past. But, now that men serve as volunteers, the group is known simply as the Auxiliary. Ison noted that the Auxiliary now has 98 active members with 23 associate members. They are highly visible in providing volunteer assistance in ten service areas at the hospital. But, they also provide two scholarships each year, coordinate a youth volunteer program in the summer with 23 young volunteers this year, provide cart transportation service on the expanded hospital campus, and coordinate the Love Lights Tree during the Christmas season to benefit the American Cancer Society. Ison introduced the Auxiliary Board members attending. They were Joan Harris (President), Connie Jean Willis (Vice President), Barbara Staples (Secretary), Betty Moon (Financial Secretary), Tonya Wise (Treasurer), and Dan Murphy (Cart Representative). Ruby Touchstone (Parliamentarian) could not attend. Auxiliary President Joan Harris explained that the Auxiliary is actually a nonprofit organization known as Service For Others, Inc. Harris has served in the Auxiliary for 11 years and said, "I hope to brighten someone's day," in her service. "This has made me a better person," she added. She further shared that she and other Auxiliary members not only become friends with each other but also become friends with patients and their family members. Katy Arrowood concluded the program by presenting President Harris with a framed recognition acknowledging the impact that the volunteers have in people's lives and in our community.
